

REMINDERS FOR JUDGING DC WRITE-OFFS

1. Check your contest to make sure you are OK with judging. To find out more about your contest, visit www.jea.org.
2. Moderators were contacted in a separate email. Their names appear in green and are listed first in the "By Contest" document. Moderators must attend the moderators meeting on the Lobby Level in the Maryland Suite at 2:45 Friday, Nov. 13.
3. When you register for the convention on Thursday afternoon or Friday morning, please stop by the Write-Off Registration Desk and say "hi." Drag a friend over to sign up, too!
4. Check-in for dinner/judging is at 6 p.m. Friday, Nov. 13, at the Marriott – Wardman Park, on the Lobby Level in the Maryland Suite.
5. If you are not part of the convention other than write-off judging and require parking at the hotel (note: we are directly off the Red Line Metro), please email Meghan.Percival@fcps.edu to request a parking pass. Please do so by Friday, Nov. 6.
6. Do you want to know the TRUTH about judging write-offs? No one likes to be the last man standing. So plan to, once your contest is finished judging, jump to another table and pitch in. Let's all start judging together and leave judging together!
7. In the unfortunate event that you are unavailable to judge, please email Chad.Rummel@fcps.edu as soon as you know. If you need to contact us on Friday, Nov. 13, please call either of us: Chad at (202) 664-3202 or Meghan at (703) 505-2283.
