

VAJTA

spring j DAY+

Friday,
April 29 &
Saturday,
April 30,
2011

Harrisonburg High School,
Harrisonburg, VA

Bring your students and let them learn from some of the top teachers in scholastic journalism. Begin planning for next year's staff and compete in on-site write-off contests, carry-in and best of show contests. Special advisers' luncheon on Saturday. Attend both days or just one! Your choice! Registration forms and more info located at www.vajta.org.

Questions? Contact Valerie Kibler at vkibler@harrisonburg.k12.va.us, Chris Waugaman at cwaugaman@pgs.k12.va.us or visit www.vajta.org

Multiple sessions will be provided in the following strands:

- ▷ Newspaper
- ▷ Yearbook
- ▷ Literary Magazine
- ▷ Broadcasting
- ▷ Online Media
- ▷ Advising
- ▷ Photography

Registration by April 22: $25
Registration after April 22: $35 (including at the door)
Lunch included.

T-shirts will be available for sale on site.

*Aaron Manfull,
Saturday keynoter
and Online Strand
instructor*

Aaron is the media adviser at Francis Howell North High School in St. Charles, Mo. He advises the North Star newsmagazine, the Excalibur yearbook, FHNtoday.com and FHNtoday TV. He is in his 13th year of advising and is the chair of the JEA Digital Media Committee which runs JEADigitalMedia.org.

*Bradley Wilson,
Friday keynoter
and Photography
Strand instructor*

Bradley advises the daily newspaper, the radio station, a weekly newspaper, a literary magazine, an online magazine and the yearbook at North Carolina State University. He is a frequent speaker on topics ranging from the ethics of digital photography to publications design. He is the editor of the publications for the national Journalism Education Association and active in local and regional associations to improve the quality of journalism education.